Introduction: responding to the kingdom

It's worth selling everything to gain the kingdom of heaven

- like a man finding treasure in a field (v44)
- like a merchant finding a valuable pearl (v45-46)

If we've understood, we should bring out its treasure

- a digression on Christian scribes?
- a way of describing disciples?
- an autobiographical note?

"Go therefore and make disciples..."
(Matthew 28:19)

Conclusion

Questions for discussion:

What do these parables teach us about the kingdom?

How do they encourage us to make disciples?
