

CHRISTIANITY FOR SCEPTICS, ENQUIRERS & BELIEVERS

A very warm welcome

Paul Williams will speaking on Mark 10:45

Notices

- 1. New? If you're here for the first time and would like more information about St Nick's Talks, including our weekly email, please fill in a contact card.
- 2. St Nick's Talks Partnership. We won't be meeting for partnership as we take a break over the summer. Join us again in September!
- 3. Let us know what you think! Please take a few minutes to complete our end of year survey to help us improve the St Nick's Talks by scanning the QR code. We'd love your feedback.
- 4. Success in the City. Join us in September for welcome and networking events to hear how you can be supported to serve Jesus within your workplace. Scan the QR code for more information.
- 5. Coming up. What would you ask God to do? *To heal me. Invite colleagues to join us next week as Paul Williams helps us to explore this request.

Introduction: What would be the most inappropriate thing to ask from God?

1. The staggering surprise - the Son of Man came to serve

13 "I saw in the night visions, and behold, with the clouds of heaven

there came one like a son of man, and he came to the Ancient of Days
and was presented before him.

14 And to him was given dominion
and glory and a kingdom,
that all peoples, nations, and languages
should serve him;
his dominion is an everlasting dominion,
which shall not pass away,
and his kingdom one that shall not be destroyed.

Daniel 7:13-14 ESV

2. A stunning surety - Jesus served us by paying our ransom

3. A stupendous sacrifice - Jesus gave his life

Questions for further reflection/discussion:

What do you find most surprising about Mark 10:45?

How would you explain to someone the need for Jesus to serve us by giving his life as a ransom?