What we are in Christ

Introduction

Last week dealt with our sense of superiority

This week deals with our sense of inferiority

Both are essential for unity

1. Your second class citizenship is in the past (v11-13)

2. Because the cross completely unites us (v14-18)

3. So believe you're fully in the family (v19-22)

Question for discussion:

How does this help us understand what we are in Christ?

How does it change the way you view yourself, the church and your place within it?
