Introduction

Leading a good life won't keep an exile out of trouble (v1-9)

Living a God-centred life will prepare an exile for trouble (v10-18)

Conclusion

Questions for further reflection / discussion:

A life of integrity must be right to aim for - why might that get God's people into trouble sometimes?

How does Daniel's God-centred life prepare him for when trouble comes? What is the significance for us?
