Every claim about religion is exclusive

Jesus' exclusive claims are unique

Jesus' exclusive claims sustain inclusive community

Questions for discussion:

What most caught your attention in the talk?

What did you find most convincing? Less convincing?

Do you agree that everyone is making exclusive claims when it comes to religion?

Jesus says, "I am the way" - does that make Christianity unique? And if so, is it appealing?

Do you agree that Jesus' claim to be 'the way' makes Christian communities more likely to be inclusive, humble and loving? Has that been your experience?
